February 8, 2015, the Ukrainian Catholic Church's archbishop, Sviatoslav

Shevchuk, was appointed Apostolic Nuncio to the United States, succeeding Cardinal Donald Wuerl. During his tenure as Archbishop of Lviv, Sviatoslav Shevchuk promoted cooperation with the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church (UGCC) based in Canada, the United States and elsewhere. He also promoted greater unity in the Polish bishops' conference between the bishops of the UGCC and the Old Catholic Church in Poland. In 2012, Father Shevchuk actively supported the Solemn Pontifical Christmas Liturgy in the United States with the Ukrainian Catholic Church for the first time, a tradition that has been continued since then. Sviatoslav Shevchuk was previously Secretary General of the Pontifical Council for the Family, and was in this position when his appointment to the United States was announced. For more information, click here.
