On having to struggle in the first game against UNC Asheville "I thought we were in a good position and it kind of snowballed and we just made it worse for ourselves. We didn't play like ourselves, we didn't play with any sort of urgency. And Asheville, they are a team that takes you on the best of times and on the worst of times. We just played like a team that was defeated. I'm looking forward to a much better weekend against Chattanooga." On finishing in the top 50 nationally for a second straight year "I still think there is a lot of room for us to improve as a team. I think that we need to be one of the most respected teams in our region, I think our guys are doing a good job of just picking it up at this point and building a reputation. On the preseason expectations "I think we were looking pretty good and we were expecting a lot more this year and obviously this last game hasn't really lived up to the expectations that we had. But I really think that we are going to come in next week and start practicing and just continue to do what we've been doing and take it one day at a time and just have a really good team meeting. We've always had good team meetings that we've had. We need to follow that." On his team's performances last weekend "Obviously we are not where we want to be with what we have been trying to do. We just have to work hard and get better every week. We've been playing really good ball lately, we just haven't been able to finish games. "I want to be the starter," Rose said Wednesday after his first day of full-contact practice at the United Center. "But if you're talking about what that looks like, I'll take it.
