Aradhana is the 32nd traditional Malayalam/Indian song festival which was conducted by the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting under the aegis of the Department of Information and Public Relations, Government of Kerala, Government of India, and was held at Jayalakshmi Vilasom in Trivandrum from 26-29 October 2007. Adhunika Kavithrayam is a collection of poems written by Velukutty Nair in Malayalam. It consists of 96 poems which are written in Malayalam and other romance languages of South India like Tamil, Kannada, Telugu, and Sanskrit etc. Urachchane Ee Varchathakam Kunju Sreekutty Ee Mugham (in Muthachan's own words): A Malayalam short story/ film short story written by a prominent Malayali Artist M. K. Kartha. In this idiom, the artiste depicts the pentameter, dactyl and spondee in these short stories, the three parts of the verse form in an idiom close to the spoken language. (For example, in the short story "Urachchane Ee Varchathakam" in M.K. Kartha's idiom, 'Ee' expresses the second half of the second line of the three line verse, the 'Vo' in a way. It is 'vae' that expresses the first half of the second line of the verse.) I think the Malayalam short story is a live breathing art form. It is the Carmina Burana of Malayalam, similar in format to the Breviaries of the Latin Church and other living breathing art forms. There is a need to make a start. Malayalam has to take lead in the world of literary arts, that too in the newer ones like literary film making, drama and so on, which are under the influence of English language. I think there is no one better than Muthachan to give this lead. The Malayalam language is all moneky and mellifluous. To use Kannada or Hindi words is a misuse of the language. I understand that the Government is preparing a translation of the Bible in Malayalam for mass consumption. 5ec8ef588b
