The film begins with the young Singham (Ajay Devgn) being sent out of prison on parole to attend to the death of a man, Mahesh, who was found murdered in an ambulance. Mahesh was involved with the drug trade and was being arrested by a corrupt officer, Sahakar (Boman Irani) while trying to put a pay-off on Babajis aide Prakash Rao. Singham quickly gets in the fray and carries out a successful raid, during which Mahesh, his wife, and his associates are killed in an explosion. In an effort to cover up the crime and protect Babaji, Sahakar enters into a deal with Babaji. Babaji reveals the names of Singhams close friends, including Avni, in exchange for his protection.

Meanwhile, Singhams lieutenant, Dheeraj (Tusshar Kapoor), becomes aware of Singhams true intentions. Singham is given Babajis name and he is appointed the police officer in charge of overseeing Babajis goons. Babajis aide, Prakash, dies, and Singham is told that he will be promoted to solve the case. Singham goes about solving the case by picking up leads on Babajis henchmen, one of which leads to Babajis involvement in the death of his former friend and minister Prakash

Rao, at Babajis hands. To fulfill this charge, Singham hides in a bathroom to listen in on a conversation between Babaji and Prakash Rao, which implicates Babaji as Prakashs murderer. As Babaji is arrested, Singham shoots an unarmed Prakash Rao and gets into a shootout with his bodyguards. Afterward, Singham discovers a hidden apartment in Babajis house, where Babaji stores his illegal drug trade. Babajis secretary, Chudamani (Shruti Haasan), is executed for attempting to abort an unborn child, and Babaji is annoyed with his wife, Nandini (Gurbachan Singh), for having an affair with Singhams childhood friend, Avni. Nandini leaves Babajis house, prompting Babaji to strangle Satyaraj Chandar, Gurujis sister, in front of everyone and demand Singham execute a warrant on him. 5ec8ef588b
