Since the manga ended, a few fan-made OVA's have been released. The first episode of them was released in 2008, and the second and third episodes were released in 2009. [46] In addition, the episodes of Death Note Kurosawa Vol. 1, Death Note Kurosawa Vol. 2, and Death Note Kurosawa Vol. 3 have been released on several websites. In 2010, three new OVA's have been released by the anime staff, featuring Mello and his predecessors. [1] In 2011, another two new OVA's were released, and the last two were released in 2012. [2] In addition, a live action movie, Death Note (Death Note The Final Act [1]), has also been released. Sadly, He wasnt wearing any underwear. What the?! What a freak!

He didnt even close the top button. And he had long hair! Ewwww I am just too scared. Your turn Beppu (referring to Kikuhide Beppu, the main antagonist of Death Note) Anonymous Coward

Stupid statement. Anime isnt EPL. Why would you compare the anime with the movie? Anyway, as a movie, Death Note is a complete trash. The only good thing of the movie is the ending. That ended waaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaay way too soon. End and then end. And NOT saving all of the characters. That was a complete waste of time. Anyway, to make some comparison between a movie and the anime, is completely the wrong comparison. Get over it before you continue to make this baseless statements. Anonymous Coward
